Dear Hiring Manager,

My name is Gregory D. Hodge. Thank you for taking time to review my profile and for the opportunity to apply for Graphic Designer position. After reviewing your job description, it's clear that you're looking for a candidate that is extremely familiar with the responsibilities associated with the role, and can perform them confidently. Given these requirements, I am certain that I have the necessary skills to successfully do the job and perform above expectations.

I am a communications and media professional who has been consistently praised as a vital asset by my co-workers and management. Over the course of my 10+ year media and marketing career, I've developed a skill set directly relevant to the positions you are hiring for. Overall, I have consistently demonstrated successful abilities in every aspect of my working career and I invite you to review my detailed achievements in the attached resume.

After reviewing my resume, I hope you will agree that I am the type of competent and competitive candidate you are looking for. I look forward to elaborating on how my specific skills and abilities will benefit your organization. My salary requirement is flexible based on the compensation package and is in the $42,000 - $65,000 range. Please visit my online portfolio GHodgewebdev.site and feel free to contact me at (340) 998 6956 or via email at GHodge.vi@gmail.com to arrange for a convenient meeting time.

Thank you for your consideration, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best Regards,

Gregory D. Hodge
